LEAD CHANGE. Empower yourself and others.

In alignment with HPGM's mission to support professional growth of its members, this annual program showcases development opportunities for Hispanic professionals. This half-day program is designed to help HPGM members connect with experts in leadership development, educational opportunities and career advancement. Each year, the Leadership Conference provides an entrée of programming essentials for Hispanic professionals to advance in their careers by showcasing hot topics in organizational and professional development opportunities for individuals seeking new opportunities, or connecting with powerful role models who can help motivate and inspire.
