Hispanic Professional Event Doubles as a Toy Drive

Dec. 7, 2007 – Milwaukee – Hispanic Professionals of Greater Milwaukee (HPGM) is holding its annual “Noche de Niños” networking event on Friday, Dec. 7 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Marcus Center for the Performing Arts, Anello Atrium. The networking event is also a fund-raiser to gather toys for local Hispanic children.

“Once a quarter we hold networking events called “Noches de Pachanga” for Hispanic professionals in the Milwaukee community to come together and socialize,” said HPGM President Gil Llanas. “But the December Noche is by far my favorite because it embraces the spirit of the holiday season so that we can give generously to the next generation of Hispanic leaders in Milwaukee.”

The annual event historically brings in more than 100 toys for area tots, which are given to the children at UMOS Breakfast with Santa on Sat., Dec. 15.

Noche de Niños is free to HPGM members and $10 for non-members. HPGM asks that all guests bring one toy to donate.

Following the event, guests are invited to join the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra for Holiday Pops featuring all your favorite holiday songs at 8 p.m. The Symphony is offering 50 percent off the ticket price for all those attending Noche de Niños. To place your order call 414-291-7605 and use promotional code 7956 or visit www.mso.org to order!

HPGM is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to create a dynamic environment for Hispanic professionals to thrive by fostering leadership, mentoring, education, networking and new initiatives that support Hispanics.
